2. General trends and signatures in your career path

2.1. Your natal affinity to a choice of career as per your “Varna”

From our natal chart, our Varna is calculated based on the Nakshatra location of Moon in our natal chart. The original Varnashram was created to assign the division of labor in the production and distribution system of the economy. A person's Varna indicated his core competence based on his personality and intrinsic nature to be best suited for a particular function in the society. It was not a hereditary system.

We give below the different functions associated with each of the 4 Varna classifications. In Bhagavat Gita, Lord Sree Krishna had mentioned about 4 Gunas, based on which 4 Varnas were created according to the kind of work (Karma), a person is supposed to perform in his/her life as per the qualities the person has inherited based on environment and circumstances and past Karma. These 4 kinds of works are necessary to maintain the smooth functioning of the society. These qualities were purely based on the person's natural talents and skill. This was an unique system but later on it got degenerated into the evils of Cast system which was purely based on heredity. Man is essentially a social animal. For his survival and prosperity, he has to interact with other people also. He has clear cut duties and responsibilities towards performing special functions which help the society to sustain and to grow and make progress.

2.2. These 4 Varnas are as follows

People who by choice and independently, are involved in production and distribution of goods and services belong to “Vaishya Varna”.

People who by choice offers their services to others in the society based on their special skill and strength belong to “Khatriya Varna”.

People who by choice offers their labour and skill completely to and individual or to an organization against fixed wages belong to “Shudra Varna”.

People who are not directly involved in any production or distribution of goods and services but have special skill and wisdom for which the society collectively recognizes and rewards or compensates them materially belong to “Brahman Varna”.

In today's global economy, the choices of professions or the different kinds of work that people perform are vast than what they were in ancient times, and every day new profession or new areas of work are emerging, but at fundamental level this classification into 4 Varnas are still very much valid.

As per your horoscope, Vedic astrology can decide you belong to which of the 4 Varnas. This is strictly based on your chart and has nothing to do with your hereditary status. A brahman's child can be shudra or vice versa.

As per your natal chart, your Varna is “Vaishya”.

Your present career is related to teaching & education field. You have chosen the right career as Mercury is located in the 4th Lord Venus is located in the 9th house with Jupiter.

The 5th Lord Mercury is also located in the 9th house is good for this type of job. You want to know to whether you will be successful as a therapist besides your present job or activity, it may happen within October 12, 2014 as Jupiter now transit through the 2nd house from your Ascendant & also aspect your natal 10th house & you are also now passing through the sub period of Mercury in the main period of Saturn. You are also suited for business as a consultant as 5th Lord Mercury is located in the 9th house with benefic Venus.

2.3. Your natal Affinity to a choice of career as per the sign elements and sign types of majority of planets in your chart

Table of planets sign type and sign elements
Type of Sign/Elements of Sign	Fire	Air	Earth	Water
Cardinal		Su, Me, Ju, Ve
Fixed	Mo, Ma		Sa	Mo, Ma
Mutable	Ra		Ke	Ra

2.4. 10th house

Your 10th house from Ascendant is “Scorpio” sign.

This is “Fixed” sign type with “Water” element.

Your 10th house lord is located in “Taurus” sign.

This is “Fixed” sign type with “Earth” element.

2.5. Career Choice as per sign type

Majority of Planets in your chart are located in Cardinal signs and in Earth Elements. Cardinal signs denote ability to take up pioneer work, to engage in callings that are new, inventive, and of a public nature. It fits the native to undertake new enterprises, and also to adopt those professions that require speed, ingenuity, quick wit, tact and diplomacy. It also denotes that the native will be aspiring and ambitious, never resting until he is his own master or at the head of whatever pursuit he follows.

2.6. Career Choice as per sign element

Earthy signs give employment in connection with buildings, mining, and all laborious, heavy and slow work in which time, labour and perseverance are required. Virgo inclines to chemistry, Taurus to agriculture or finance, Capricorn to administrative or political positions.

2.7. Your career preference as per planets in your 10th house, or lord of 10th house in case there are no planets in your 10th house

Saturn in the tenth house denotes a precarious condition at some period of Life. Saturn is essentially the planet of fate, and to all who are born with Saturn in the mind-heaven this text may be quoted. ‘And Satan took him up into a high mountain and showed him all these things.’ The elevation of Saturn gives some power, pride, ambition, and persistent desire for material objects and worldly welfare. If well aspected, the native will rise by his own perseverance and industry far above the sphere into which he was born.

If Saturn is afflicted, he will rise only to fall again, or will over-reach himself by a lack of proportion or ability to judge the limits to which he can expand.

The affliction of the luminaries from Saturn in the Middle Cusp brings dishonour or scandal, and many obstacles to progress; good aspects strengthen the character, but render progress slow and liable to interruption and delay. Saturn has power and dignity in the M.C., but much depends upon sign and aspect, for the unfolding of Saturn is proverbially slow, though sure.

Saturn fits the native to undertake grave responsibility, also to follow pursuits that require deep study or patient planning; architects, land surveyors, contractors, miners, builders, holders of public positions and offices, municipal or state officials, etc. are signified by Saturn.

You may also prefer such business which are associated with markets and exchanges, like stock market and commodity exchanges or industry associations.

2.9. Special status of planets and their connection with your career , Career choice as per Destiny controller in your chart

In every chart, there is one planet which we describe as the “Destiny Controller” of our life. As Destiny controller, it influences every aspect in our life and it will trigger major events during it’s period/sub-periods in our life.
